Help Us Help Hansel

We are urgently seeking help with donations for one of our dogs, Hansel. He is diagnosed with lumbosacral spondylosis, which causes severe pain. He now needs an MRI which will cost in the region of $2,000, possibly followed by surgery that could cost around $5,000. We are a nonprofit organization that survives solely on donations and desperately need your help for the medical treatment Hansel needs and deserves.
